

Coalition against Rest Area Commercialization Continues to Grow

The Partnership to Save Highway Communities continues to grow as a strong voice in defense of the federal ban on rest area commercialization, with the Blind Entrepreneurs Alliance joining as the coalition's newest member. Read more about the Blind Entrepreneurs Alliance and the threat rest area commercialization poses to the ability of blind entrepreneurs to support themselves and their families on the Partnership's blog.